The winners of the Hans Christian Andersen Awards are selected by an international jury which is chosen by the IBBY Executive Committee from candidates put forward by the IBBY National Sections. The IBBY delegates at its biennial (biennial) Assembly elect the Jury President, National Jury Vice President, Hans Christian Andersen Award Jury members and National Jury members in regional countries. The unique international jury structure considerable time and money leads to the selection of the most suitable authors and illustrators. Together, they help to ensure excellence in books for children and young adults, which is needed to reach today's 21st century.

Sweden, the USSR, Norway, the Ukraine and the USA. Hans Christian Andersen's stories and children's eyes light up the world over. And as the best for his stories are not lesser valued by national borders, the Hans Christian Andersen Award is awarded, which makes us different and brings what we share – a passion for good stories. The Hans Christian Andersen Award's international jury celebrates the most awarded children's authors and artists in the world through the prism of different cultures and experiences.

Sofia Givoni
HCA Award Jury President
2008 and 2010

IBBY's completely democratic jury selected process operating the entire globe. The award of the Hans Christian Andersen Award every two years awards to an international jury (which is what is the best in the world of children's literature and illustration). There is nothing else like it!

HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN AWARD
Sponsored by Hans Christian Andersen Award
IBBY

The Hans Christian Andersen Awards are the highest international recognition given to authors and illustrators of children's books.

The importance of the Andersen Awards lies in the fusion of the idea of international understanding with the promotion of quality in children's books. IBBY's awards have changed the way children's books are seen; they are now regarded as works of literary and artistic art.

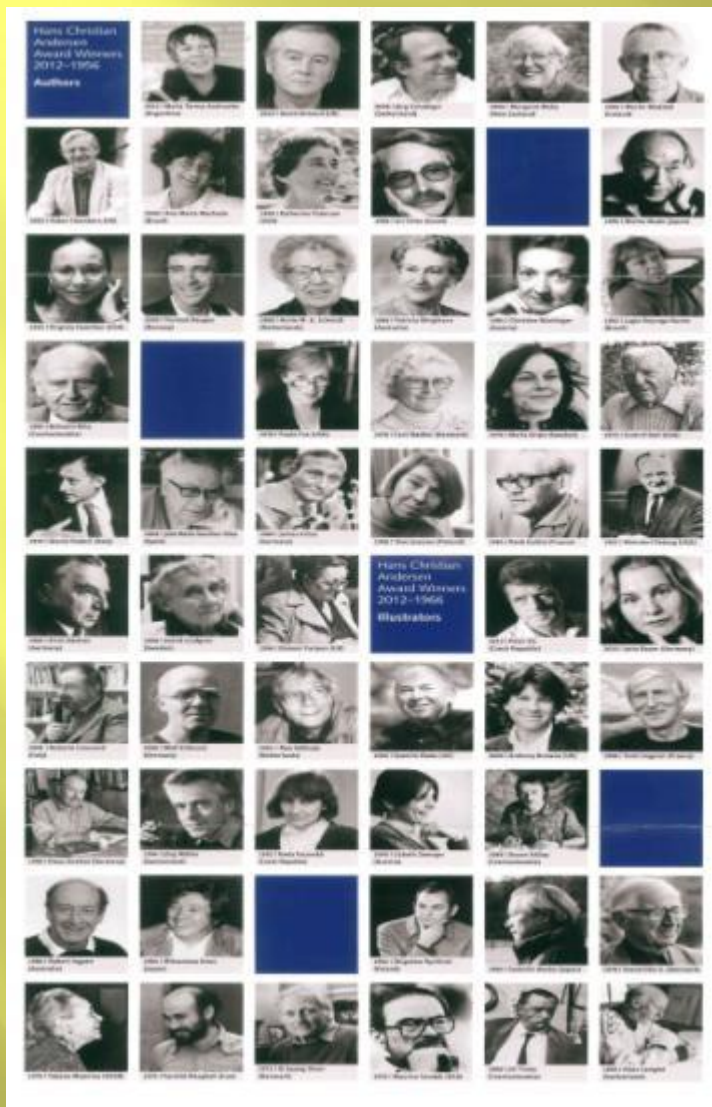

They are awarded to an author and an illustrator whose complete works have made a lasting contribution to children's literature. The nominations are made by the National Sections of IBBY and the recipients are selected by a distinguished international jury of children's literature specialists.

The Author's Award has been given since 1956 and the Illustrator's Award since 1966. The Patron of the Awards is Her Majesty Queen Margrethe II of Denmark and the Awards are sponsored by Hans Island Inc, Republic of Korea.
